SHORTS URGES WATER WAYS

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—Theodore F. Shorts, president of the Chicago & Alton railroad, was the principal speaker at the first day's session of the Lake and River Transportation Association. The railroad president said that the deep waterways was the basis of the country's commerce and that the government should help rather than hinder the efforts of the country.

PROF. C. E. NORTON'S ILLNESS DENIED

The story which was circulated today that Professor Charles E. Norton, a professor of history at Harvard, is critically ill at the home in Cambridge, Mass., is entirely untrue. Mr. Norton, who is 65 years of age, is in good health, and although he has been ill during the last few months, he is now as well as usual.

Florence Oil Heater

There are always some rooms in the house that are hard to heat. Here's where a Florence Oil Heater comes in handy. Can be carried in a case from room to room. Easily cleaned. Safe. Will not go directly into the reservoir, but runs in a separate tube surrounded by cooling current of air. Can be turned too high or too low, so can be removed for heating water. Handsomely nickel-plated. Artistic in design. Efficient and handiest oil heater on the market.

It is the only oil heater that is safe and efficient. It is the only oil heater that is safe and efficient. It is the only oil heater that is safe and efficient.

Boy Murderer, Studied by Expert, Shows Signs of Moral Depravity.

NELSON KING.

Eyes—Peculiarly shifty, with unnatural dilation of pupils. Found frequently in certain criminal types. Nose—Almost rudimentary, and indicating utter lack of feeling. Chin—Receding and very weak, found in 50 per cent of juvenile criminals. Ears—Most marked indication of degeneracy. Ears of this type are not invariably found in criminals who delight in cruelty. Mouth—Weak and tremulous and shows lack of any moral sense.

CRIMINOLOGIST STUDIES CASE OF BOY MURDERER

The eight-year-old boy, Nelson King, of New Bedford, who has confessed to having shot his playmate, little Johnny Brown, into the Atlantic River, causing his death, has excited an interest in physicians and men who make a study of criminal types. They are baffled by the extreme youth of the lad, and say that his case presents many new features.

In addition to causing the death of the Boston boy, young King has from earliest childhood been a very kind of cruelty. As an infant he took delight in burning a kitten to death, and thought it very fun to stab the eyes out of a pig with a pin. In fact, he was a very cruel child, and he was a very cruel child.

The following study of the lad was made for the AMERICAN by the well-known New York criminologist, Professor Hanson. It is, he says, one of the most interesting cases he has ever had to deal with.

By Prof. R. D. Hanson. The extreme youth of Nelson King and his extraordinary record of cruelty and crime would furnish a problem that would puzzle such world-renowned experts in the study of degeneracy as Cesare Lombroso, G. A. Nott, and at home here in New York, the criminologist, Dr. William D. Hanson.

The most notable feature in this case is the abnormal eyes. Of a type generally found in the case of degenerates, they are peculiarly shifty, with unnatural dilation of pupils. VAHEY SORE AT PARTY LEADERS FOR HIS FROST

Friends, Angry at Ratification Chill, Condemn Attitude of Democratic Chiefs.

If the Boston leaders of the Springfield convention party are preparing to hand the book to their party's nominees for Governor, the committee wants to know it right away. The answer? James H. Vahey of Watertown.

It was a very little party that gathered today in Room 113, at Young's Hotel, the Vahey campaign headquarters. Mr. Vahey was there. He was James H. Vahey, chairman of the Democratic Party in Massachusetts. The Boston Democrats present were fewer by two than the Boston speakers at last night's ratification meeting in Faneuil Hall. There were two of them last night.

MYSTERY IN YACHT WRECK

says he pulled in the boat with four oarsmen who said Mum Abner, after a fight, is dead.

Captain Vickers of the Wood Reef Life Guard Station discovered the boat adrift about 10 o'clock last night. She was deserted. Everything aboard was in the wildest disorder. The halyards and rigging were all tangled up in each other's plans. Captain Vickers ran on shore, hoisted the craft and took her to the inner harbor where she had been put under guard around near Long Point Lighthouse.

The crew had no idea what happened, others, that they had fought and that he had killed them.

LYNN, Oct. 9. — Although the police have sent broadcast a request for the detention of Charles Hitchcock, the Danvers man who, it is charged, has abducted fourteen-year-old Tillie Neubert, they have as yet got no trace of the couple. The last heard from them was in a letter mailed at Boston, which it was said they intended to go West. The girl's parents are willing to receive the girl back and forgive everything.

Union. Following this concession the great majority of the men went back to work. The company made only one condition to their offer to recognize the men's union. This was that the chauffeurs should cut loose from all affiliations either with the teamsters' or hackmen's unions.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Although the first expedition of the Harvard graduates to secure from a coral reef off the coast of Jamaica several million dollars in gold bullion proved a failure through the wreck of the yacht Mayflower, another such venture will be attempted within a few weeks.

THE LARGEST AND BEST EQUIPPED
CLOTHING HOUSE IN NEW ENGLAND

Leopold Morse Co

TWO ENTIRE SIX FLOOR
BUILDINGS
92,400 SQ. FT.

STUDY this picture. Look at it carefully. You've seen pictures of Boston clothing stores before, of course. But you never saw one like this—you couldn't, for there isn't another clothing store in this city that can show anywhere near as much floor space as we occupy.

Think of it! Two six-floor buildings—92,400 square feet—over two acres devoted to the manufacturing, wholesaling and retailing of Morse-Made Clothing and the retailing of Furnishings, Shoes and Hats for men and boys.

Look at the picture again. In the left-hand corner on the fourth floor you will notice the Examining Room, where every yard of cloth is severely tested before being accepted by us as good enough to be utilized for Morse-Made Clothing. Then look at the Cutting Room and the different shops, and you will see how every detail in the production of Morse-Made Clothing is under our closest control, handled with the maximum of care and convenience with a minimum of bother and costly delays.

But even this picture, graphic as it is, doesn't do justice to our establishment. It is far too small to show all the details that enter into the careful and painstaking manufacturing and selling methods that have placed Leopold Morse Company at the head of New England's clothing houses. It doesn't show all the important changes we've made since we began the extensive alterations four months ago incidental to our acquisition of two Washington Street stores adjoining our main building.

We, therefore, ask you to consider this our personal invitation to you to come and look through our establishment. Everything is wide open from basement to roof—no closed doors confront you—nothing is hidden. We'll show you, among other things, the relocations of the old departments—the addition of new departments—the improved methods devised by us for your better service—the new wardrobe cases (to be seen nowhere else) that keep Morse-Made Clothes in perfect condition for immediate wear—and, best of all, the new clothes themselves.

We're not offering you any gorgeous flower displays, glittering souvenirs or anything of the usual fuss-and-feathers description to tempt you here. We want your interest in us to be the sole incentive for your visit. There's a spirit in every true New Englander that makes him proud of the foremost institutions of his locality, commercial or otherwise. Surely, this business, developed from a one-floor store in 1852 to the largest and best equipped clothing house in New England, merits the pride of every individual who feels the slightest interest in the success and prosperity of New England's business enterprises.

These opening days of our enlarged store will also be the occasion of our first complete exhibit of the new Fall and Winter styles in men's and boys' attire. While it includes the subdued styles that always appeal to conservative persons, it is particularly generous in the provision it makes for the younger generation now demanding radically pronounced efforts. The showing is indeed comprehensive with wearables at prices within the reach of those of limited means as well as the finer qualities intended for persons whose tastes are only satisfied by the highest grades. In either case, and at whatever price we ask, we always give absolutely more real, lasting value than equal cost procures elsewhere. And always you will find the trustworthy quality, the dependable workmanship that have made the name of Morse synonymous with the word Reliability for over 56 years.

So, then, we want you to feel welcome to come without a thought of any obligation on your part to make any purchases. We want you to understand and appreciate why it is that Morse-Made Clothing, in addition to enjoying sales leadership in Boston, is also sold in every city in New England that is large enough to have a good clothing store, and in most of the largest cities between New England and the Pacific Coast. The important thing is that you come and see for yourself just what the name of Leopold Morse Company stands for.

Our elaborate style booklet, containing detailed price list with full information and illustrations of our new models, can be obtained in the store, or will be mailed on request.
